

May 2017 Newsletter Part 4 MundsPark.com

Ok MundsPark.com followers, let's hit up Mormon Lake and head back to Munds Park!

Mormon Lake: The name of the lake commemorates Mormon settlers who arrived here in the 1870s and founded several dairy farms in the area, none of which exist any longer.

Mormon Lake, 29 miles southeast of Flagstaff, Arizona is the largest natural lake in Arizona. The surrounding area, is part of the largest concentration of ponderosa pine in North America, If you are an outdoor enthusiast and love fishing, camping and hiking, Mormon Lake is a great choice. The lake itself is occasionally stocked with fish species such as bullhead catfish and northern pike, but due to its intermittent nature it may contain few or no fish following dry seasons. There is an abundance of wildlife including herds of elk, deer and Pronghorn antelope.

Mormon Lake Lodge: Mormon Lake Lodge is your source for great cabin rentals in Northern AZ! Mormon Lake Lodge hosts great corporate events, holiday vacation experiences and weddings. Horseback riding, shopping, and great dining at the Pizzeria, as well as the famous Steakhouse. <http://www.mormonlodelodge.com>

Munds Park: Munds Park is widely regarded for its variety of outdoor recreation opportunities in all seasons. The Munds Park Trail System is a collection of trails surrounding the town designated for hiking, mountain biking, and ATVs. Located directly in Munds Park is Lake O'Dell, a small lake created by an earthen dam on Munds Creek. Lake O'Dell is popular among kayakers and local fishermen, and the lake is often stocked with trout.

Pinewood Country Club: Munds Park is home of the Pinewood Country Club, which is an member's only 18-hole championship golf course. The clubhouse was constructed in the late 1950s and is home to two dining/event rooms, a restaurant, and a bar, plus it has a patio for outdoor seating. The club features a large driving range, chipping green, putting green, and challenging holes for all skill levels. Along with numerous golf groups and outings, there are also countless activities that take place in the Clubhouse and Activity Center: Bridge, Bingo Plays, Musical Performances, Dance Bands, Karaoke, Organized Family Activities, Golf Lessons for all ages, Golf Clinics and Member Guest Events. <http://www.pinewoodcountryclubaz.com>
